Recall Bill Aimed at Fulbright

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Jim Johnson, who lost to Sen. J. William Fulbright in the 1968 Democratic primary, said Thursday night he had agreed to advise a group on how to initiate a proposed constitutional amendment to establish procedures for recall of the senator.

Johnson said he declined to lead the recall movement "for fear that my involvement would appear to be 'sour grapes' and therefore detract from the righteousness of the cause."

Johnson made the statements in a letter to Atty. Gen. Joe Purcell asking whether the deadline for submitting initiative petitions would be determined from the regular general election date or from the date of a runoff election set up by a 1969 change in election laws.

Johnson said he was seeking Purcell's advice because, "I have admonished my clients that time is of the essence. . . I feel strongly that the question of whether the project will be undertaken will depend largely upon a determination by them of whether the job can be accomplished in the time remaining."

If the Nov. 3 general election date applies, the deadline will be July 3. If the date of the runoff applies, the deadline will be two weeks later. The proposed amendment would be voted on Nov. 3.

The present constitution says that petitions proposing amendments shall be filed four months before the election in which the proposal is to be voted on. Signatures in number equal to at least 10 per cent of the votes cast for governor in the last general election are necessary to validate the petitions.

The attorney general is not required to give opinions to private citizens and Johnson has been a private citizen since he stepped down from the Supreme Court to run unsuccessfully for governor in 1966.

Purcell was not available for comment on whether he would honor Johnson's request and Johnson could not be reached for comment on the letter.

U.S. Funds for Minority Jobs

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Walter Cunningham, the executive director of the Governor's Council on Human Resources, says he has received unofficial notice that the council's proposed minority employment project will be federally funded.

In a meeting Thursday, Cunningham said the federal Equal Employment Opportunity Commission has approved a grant designed to provide more jobs for Negroes in Arkansas industries.

'If I Had My Way,' Reflections of Man Over 50: Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP) — IF I had my way—

Any American over 50 years of age who had never been on a public welfare roll would be given a gold medal.

Pigeons would wear diapers. Congressmen would have to hitchhike around their home districts at least once a year so they'd really get to meet the people.

It would be against the law to have knives and forks on the table at a chicken dinner.

Anybody who ever asked another person during a cold spell how he was standing the heat wave would be compelled to jog a mile through the snow clad only in his underwear.

The name of pop art would be changed to pop art.

Any advertising writer who wrote that something was as American as blueberry pie would get a free blueberry pie — right in his face.

All television comedians who joke about their wives and mothers-in-law would have to buy them equal time on a national network so they could tell what a crumbum he is.

Some GOP Supporters of Vietnam War Drop Out on Cambodian

By CARL P. LEUBSDORF

Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Long-time Republican supporters of American involvement in Vietnam, fearing political disaster for the GOP, have joined Democratic war foes in criticizing President Nixon's decision to send U.S. ground troops into Cambodia.

The Senate Foreign Relations Committee, center of opposition to U.S. policies in Southeast Asia, scheduled another meeting today to discuss how to cope with the situation after its failure to prevent the move into Cambodia.

Although Nixon's speech drew some bipartisan support, the overwhelming tone Thursday night was critical—especially at a Capitol briefing at which Undersecretary of State Elliott Richardson and Deputy Secretary of Defense David R. Packard told senators of Nixon's decision.

While Nixon said he was putting aside political considerations to take steps to prevent an American defeat, Republicans who held high hopes of picking up the seven seats needed to control the Senate were clearly stunned by the President's speech.

Sen. Robert Dole, R-Kan., a strong Nixon man who just hours before the President's speech had defended the administration's support of South Vietnamese operations into Cambodia, said he was troubled by the commitment of American troops.

"There is no doubt in my mind that we are in a very difficult position," Dole said.

'I Don't Like Being by Myself,' After Around-Earth Sail

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP) — "I don't like being by myself," mused 21-year-old Robin Lee Graham—having spent 57 months and 33,000 miles being just that to become the youngest person to sail solo around the world.

His 33-foot sloop, The Return of the Dove, the second of two boats he used on his long journey, eased into Long Beach Marina Thursday. Graham stepped ashore into the arms of Patti, 22, the wife he won on the other side of the globe.

"A nice hot bath," was his first fervent wish. "All I know is I'm glad to be home. It's better than being out there."

Out there was Honolulu, Samoa, Tonga, Fiji—where he met Patti, a California girl on a tour—the Solomon Islands, Australia, South Africa—where he married her seven months later—South America, the Caribbean, through the Panama Canal to the Galapagos Islands and, starting March 5, the final 3,600 miles home.

Graham quit high school to make the voyage and had planned to continue his education through a correspondence course, but he was a bit busy. "There was too much to do aboard the boat to do much studying," he said, "but I did read a lot."

One of the things which kept him away from his books was his original boat, the 24-foot Dove, provided by his parents, which leaked badly and had two broken masts after being battered by storms. He replaced it midway through the journey.

"You have bad days and good," he said of his adventures. "You remember the bad days."

Now, he said, "I'll go back to school. I may pick up some sort of technical trade."

Patti joined her husband at various points along his route but didn't sail with him because "he started alone and he wanted to finish alone."

How did it feel to be home? "Tired."

Supermarket shopping carts would be equipped with rubber bumpers.

Every bottle at a cocktail party would self destruct five minutes after the party was supposed to be over.

Every person convicted of drunken driving would receive an automatic one-year jail sentence.

No man would be permitted to wear shoulder-length hair in public unless he concealed it under a crew-cut wig.

Anyone convicted of peddling narcotics would immediately have injected into his own person whatever drugs were found on him at the time of his arrest.

For sports fans who weary of the long baseball season, professional football teams would play two schedules—one in the spring and another in the fall.

All college faculty members would be free to join in a student picket line—but they'd lose their pay any day they did so.

Corporations which issue credit cards would have to print on the back of them this warning: "These cards are addictive and can lead to quick insolvency."

Approximately 40 volunteers are needed for the six hours in order to keep the lines moving, according to Haskell Jones, bloodmobile chairman. He reminds Hempstead County residents that 125 pints will enable us to reach our quota for the first time in six years.

The Rev. Gordon Renshaw of Unity Baptist church reminds you that the educational building is just to the right of the sanctuary as you face it from Hervey St. The hours are 12 noon to 6 p.m. for the final visit of fiscal 1970. New donors are needed. . . How about you?

Aim to Crimp Enemy Raid Capacity

By FRED S. HOFFMAN

AP Military Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Nixon administration strategists are gambling the U.S.-South Vietnamese offensive against long-secure North Vietnamese bases inside Cambodia may cripple Hanoi's ability to launch major attacks for months.

They also are counting on the allied offensive to deter North Vietnamese troops from spreading their base areas deeper into weak Cambodia, and possibly opening a new supply route to the Gulf of Siam.

White House sources estimated it would take six weeks to two months to clean out key enemy sanctuaries. Then American and South Vietnamese ground troops are to be pulled back across the border.

Meanwhile, these sources said, the onset of the monsoon rains will seriously inhibit North Vietnamese efforts to reconstruct and resupply base positions for several months.

Then, they calculated, the North Vietnamese will need several more months to send enough arms, ammunition and other material down the Ho Chi Minh trail to support significant military actions.

In this way, it is hoped, any enemy plans for heavy attacks into South Vietnam late this spring and this summer will be blunted.

This would buy more time for the South Vietnamese army to get in shape to take over the ground fighting from the Americans so the U.S. withdrawal from Vietnam may continue in safety.

Implicit, but unsaid, is the prospect that allied forces would be prepared to return to the Cambodian base areas from time to time in an effort to keep the North Vietnamese off balance.

The White House sources said the offensive into Cambodia, while opening a new dimension in the war, will not affect President Nixon's announced plans to remove another 150,000 U.S. troops from Vietnam by May 1971.

This, military sources explained, is because the withdrawal schedule calls for limited pullouts of units over the coming couple of months. The Joint Chiefs of Staff have urged such a course during what is considered a danger period.

Denying that the new U.S.-South Vietnamese offensive is an invasion of Cambodia, the Nixon administration seems to be trying to cast the action as an extension of the Vietnam battle arena.

It confirmed, it would mark the first American serviceman killed in an offensive operation on Cambodian soil.

In Surprise Policy Switch Nixon Sends GIs Into Cambodia

U.S. Troops Strike at Raider Bases

By GEORGE ESPER

Associated Press Writer
SAIGON (AP) — About 8,000 U.S. combat troops swept into Cambodia 70 miles northwest of Saigon today and began setting up bases for assaults on the headquarters zone of the supreme Communist command for South Vietnam operations.

It marked the first time in the nine-year-old Vietnam war that an American ground force has extended its operations into Cambodia, at least in force.

About 55 miles to the southwest one of four South Vietnamese task forces that invaded the Parrot's Beak area of Cambodia Wednesday linked up with Cambodian troops defending the provincial capital of Svay Rieng. This force had thrust 30 miles into Cambodia along Highway 1.

Scores of U.S. B52 bombers and nearly 100 artillery pieces blasted the way for the American assault force accompanied by some 2,000 South Vietnamese troops and hundreds of tanks and armored personnel carriers.

Enemy resistance was light and scattered in the area known to the military as the Fishhook, and advance units stabbed 20 miles into Cambodia.

One U.S. C130 cargo plane dropped a 15,000-pound bomb four miles inside Cambodia to blast away jungle land for the building of a base called Fire Support Base Center.

The mission to set up bases indicated that the Americans plan to stay a while in Cambodia. While initial U.S. Command reports indicated only light ground action, Associated Press photographer Charles Ryan reported from four miles inside Cambodia that American transport helicopters lifting in troops ran into heavy enemy groundfire.

Ryan said a score of helicopters were hit. Pilots told Ryan that five of the helicopters were shot down and crashed.

A crewman told Ryan that one pilot was shot in the head while flying his helicopter at tree-top level, and the aircraft immediately crashed. A radio transmission said the pilot was killed, but the U.S. Command in Saigon said it could not confirm this.

If confirmed, it would mark the first American serviceman killed in an offensive operation on Cambodian soil.

Enemy Falls Back Before Allied Force

SAIGON (AP) — More than 25,000 American and South Vietnamese troops pushed deeper into two areas of Cambodia today but for the most part encountered only light resistance.

It appeared that the North Vietnamese and Viet Cong had anticipated the allied drives and pulled back to the west.

American combat troops and the U.S. Air Force's big B52 bombers extended their operations into Cambodia today for the first time in the Vietnam war in an attempt to smash the headquarters of the Communist high command for South Vietnam.

After an advance bombardment by about 35 B52s and nearly 100 artillery pieces at nine firebases along the border, a force of 8,000 Americans and about 2,000 South Vietnamese crossed this morning into the Cambodian area known to the military as the Fishhook, 70 miles northwest of Saigon. Hundreds of tanks and armored personnel carriers were in the force; resistance was light and scattered, and advance units penetrated 20 miles into Cambodia.

About 55 miles to the southwest, one of the four South Vietnamese task forces that invaded the Parrot's Beak area of Cambodia Wednesday linked up with Cambodian troops defending the provincial capital of Svay Rieng, and the South Vietnamese and Cambodian commanders conferred. This force had advanced 30 miles into Cambodia along Highway 1.

The other three South Vietnamese forces were sweeping the Parrot's Beak area for enemy base camps. A total of 15,000 South Vietnamese troops were in the four forces, and about 100 advisers were the only Americans with them. But American bombers, helicopter gunships and artillery were supporting them.

Senior Vietnamese officers say the command post was moved deeper into Cambodia a few days ago, apparently in anticipation of the American sweep.

COGSVN, is responsible for both political affairs and viet Cong military activities.

The headquarters reports directly to officials in Hanoi by highly sophisticated radio communications. The key leaders of COGSVN at present are also members of the North Vietnamese Politburo, according to American specialists in Communist affairs.

A White House official said the thrust into Cambodia should last six weeks to two months. Thousands of U.S. and South Vietnamese troops are engaged against an estimated enemy force of 40,000.

Nixon charged the Communists in the last two weeks have been overrunning Cambodia and turning it into a vast springboard for attacks into South Vietnam. He promised that "once enemy forces are driven out of these sanctuaries and their military supplies destroyed, we will withdraw."

But no one in Washington could predict how much of a fight the enemy forces would put up or how long the new, expanded phase of the war would continue. The reactions of Moscow and Peking, apart from expected angry outcries, were also admittedly unpredictable.

In words which seemed to recognize the risks of Russian and Red Chinese counter-actions, however, Nixon said: "These actions (the strikes into Cambodia) are in no way directed at the security interests of the United States."

'Stakes Too High for Politics'

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

AP Special Correspondent
WASHINGTON (AP) — In a stunning turn of policy, President Nixon has launched a surprise offensive by U.S. and South Vietnamese troops against North Vietnamese and Viet Cong sanctuaries in Cambodia.

He declared the assaults were essential to save American lives, continue his Vietnam troop withdrawal program, and help end the war.

Nixon announced his controversial decision to the nation Thursday in a dramatic televised speech in which he acknowledged it might make him a one-term president but argued the stakes were too high for political considerations.

"Whether I may be a one-term president," he declared, "is insignificant compared to whether by our failure to act in this crisis the United States proves itself to be unworthy to lead the forces of freedom in this critical period."

His decision was immediately assailed by a number of leading senators, although some others praised it. In the immediate aftermath of the speech there was no doubt Nixon faces a bitter and prolonged battle in the Senate.

SAIGON (AP) — The American troops who invaded Cambodia are seeking a decisive objective: the top command post for all Communist military and political activities in South Vietnam.

It is being hunted in the scrub jungles of Cambodia north of Vietnam's war Zone C where the enemy has constructed thick-walled concrete bunkers linked by a maze of tunnels.

But the top enemy command post, known as the Central Office for South Vietnam, or COSVN, is only sometimes in that area. Since it was formed in the early 1960s, COSVN has been a mobile and dispersed headquarters.

Senior Vietnamese officers say the command post was moved deeper into Cambodia a few days ago, apparently in anticipation of the American sweep.

COGSVN, is responsible for both political affairs and viet Cong military activities.

The headquarters reports directly to officials in Hanoi by highly sophisticated radio communications. The key leaders of COGSVN at present are also members of the North Vietnamese Politburo, according to American specialists in Communist affairs.

4,000 Troops Vanguards to Appear at Convention Here

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP) — Thousands of demonstrators against a Black Panther murder trial flocked in from across the nation today with the National Guard on an alert and 4,000 federal troops standing by in neighboring states to cope with any violence.

The protesters, mostly youths, came for a "Free the Panthers" rally featuring speakers from the Chicago 7 riot trial, the Black Panther party and civil rights groups.

Estimates of the number of possible participants went as high as 50,000, and arrangements were made to feed up to 35,000 at Yale University, which borders the historic New Haven Green where the rally is to take place today and Saturday.

On Thursday the Defense Department ordered a brigade of the 82nd Airborne Division airlifted to Westover Air Base at Chicopee, Mass., and a regiment of the 2nd Marines was flown to Quonset Point Naval Air Station, R.I.

"New Haven has been turned into a military base for the sole purpose of creating an air of hysteria in order to break down the support that's being mobilized for the defendants here in Connecticut," said the Panther chief of staff, David Hillard. The defendants—including Panther Chairman Bobby G. Seale—are being held in connection with the slaying last May of another Panther, Alex Rackley of New York City.

Rally leaders do not believe a fair trial is possible anywhere in the nation for Black Panthers because of what they call the "racist power structure." The theory, as stated recently by local Panther leader Doug Miranda, is that if enough people protest the trial, the "power structure" will put a stop to the proceedings and free the defendants.

Shopkeepers in downtown New Haven boarded up their stores Thursday for fear of violence, despite protest by rally organizers that the rally would be peaceable.

In calling for federal troops to stand by, Gov. John Dempsey told U.S. Atty. Gen. John N. Mitchell it is possible "violence could escalate beyond our capacity to contain it."

The state adjutant general, Maj. Gen. E. Donald Walsh said the governor's alert order to the National Guard did not mean that the entire 6,000-man state contingent would be activated, but only that it would be alerted for possible mobilization.

ests of any nation. Any government that chooses to use these actions as a pretext for harming relations with the United States will be doing so on its own responsibility and at its initiative and we will draw the appropriate conclusions."

Congressional leaders were briefed by the President and some Cabinet members immediately before the speech. There was no evidence they had been consulted before the decision was made.

Nor was there any evidence that U.S. allies, other than South Vietnam, had been consulted. Informed officials said Premier Lon Nol of Cambodia, who had asked Nixon for arms and military supplies, had not asked for U.S. troops. In fact, Cambodian officials said the U.S. action would be protested. Nixon's decision drew immediate fire from Senate advocates of disengagement from the war and from foes of any expansion in such criticism as "unbelievable," "reckless" and "sad."

mind the public reaction is going to be adverse," Dole told reporters. "I just can't see anything but an increase in wounded, killed, and this will cause a sharp downturn in support of the President's policies."

Likewise, Sen. Peter Dominick, R-Colo., a member of the Armed Services Committee who had declared support of earlier operations into Cambodia by South Vietnamese troops, said he thought "it's going to be very hard to get" support for Nixon's dispatch of ground troops.

While the attack offered by the President is "probably correct," he said, "The question of what he is going to do from a political point of view to get American support is very, very doubtful."

Domnick spoke on Metromedia Radio News.

However, Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., who earlier in the day told Seattle, Wash., University students he opposes use of U.S. ground troops in Cambodia, said after the speech Nixon's decision could be "a turning point." But, the 1964 GOP presidential candidate added, he would have gone "much further than the President did."

"I would give them 15 days to make peace or make Haiphong harbor a mud puddle," Goldwater said in Lacey, Wash.

Key lawmakers backing Nixon included Sen. John C. Stennis, D-Miss., chairman of the Armed Services Committee; Senate Republican Leader Hugh Scott of Pennsylvania, Assistant GOP Leader Robert P. Griffin of Michigan and House Republican Leader Gerald R. Ford of Michigan.

"There has never been a time when it is more important to hold one's emotional fire and to trust the President who alone has all the facts," said Scott.

Democratic Senate leaders, sharply critical the past two days of U.S. Cambodian policy, had withheld immediate comment on Nixon's speech.

Sen. George D. Aiken of Vermont, dean of Senate Republicans, reported that the mood was "somber" at the White House when Nixon informed congressional leaders of his decision.

"If his strategy is successful and we are able to bring the war to an earlier conclusion and have less losses of our men," Aiken said, "then we will have to call him a hero—as he would be."

But the venerable Vermont Republican said, "I've heard this twice before since the war started. It didn't work then, but I do hope it works this time."

When you have to finesse for a king you have no choice in the matter. You are not going to finesse successfully unless his majesty is placed to the right of the ace. Similarly if you have a finesse for a queen and both the ace and king are in your hand or in dummy you have only one way to go for it.

In today's hand South finds himself in a club slam. He has to lose a diamond trick no matter what happens. He has no losers at all in the black suits and he can choose which way to finesse for the queen of hearts because dummy holds the king, 10 and nine of the suit and he holds the ace, jack and seven.

With two ways to go after her ladyship declarer can still go wrong if he finesesses. He isn't looking at the East and West cards.

On the other hand an alert declarer doesn't really have to worry about where the queen is. He can force a defender to lead the heart suit for him or to give him a chance to ruff a spade or diamond in one hand while discarding a heart from the other.

This type of play is called either an elimination play or a strip and end play. You don't get a chance to use this play very often but it belongs among your bag of tricks if you want to be a good journeyman bridge player.

You simply win the diamond opening—play two or three rounds of trumps—two are enough but you can afford four if you feel like playing trumps—cash the ace and king of spades and the other high diamond—lead your last diamond and show your hand to your unfortunate opponents.

A—Bid five diamonds. You have two diamonds and just one heart. Your partner may not bring this game home but you should give him a chance.

TODAY'S QUESTION

Instead of passing over your partner's two diamonds, East has overcalled with two hearts. What do you do now?

On Cambodia Nixon Risks His Career

President Nixon announced U.S. ground troops have launched an attack on Communist military headquarters in Cambodia.

He said this action is necessary to protect American lives in South Vietnam and to win the peace. He said he ordered it even at the risk of becoming a one-term president.

Thousands of American and South Vietnamese troops moved into attack, accompanied by B52 bomber raids on the Communist high command 20 miles inside Cambodia.

Once the enemy is driven out, Nixon said, "we will withdraw."

By LEWIS GULICK

Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon rejected the great bulk of domestic political advice and accepted foreign policy risks in his surprise decision to send U.S. ground troops into Cambodia.

The storm signals were already flying high on Capitol Hill when Nixon made his disclosure Thursday night. Critics of his policy were picking up support and many Nixon backers were cautioning against his going beyond U.S. support for South Vietnam's previously announced foray into Cambodia.

"Sharp limits must be set" on any U.S. aid to Cambodia, was how Sen. Harry F. Byrd Jr., D-Va., put it. "Sending troops into Cambodia goes beyond that limit," he said.

Nixon was admittedly aware of the political future at stake, and he sought to allay fears that his decision ran against his campaign pledge to end the war and bring the boys home from Vietnam.

The U.S. strike would be only temporary, he said. It was against North Vietnamese in territory they held and thus not an invasion of Cambodia; it would save American lives, help bring about peace and allow the continuation of his GI withdrawal schedule.

Under Nixon's plan, American forces will pull out of Cambodia in six weeks to two months after smashing the enemy sanctuary. But he still runs a risk of foreign developments that could upset his timetable or otherwise damage his Vietnam program.

GIRL SCOUTS

Nether rain nor thunder nor darkened clouds shall prevent Girl Scouts from convening for skills and fun.

Girl Scout Troop 311 met at the Little House in Fair Park Saturday, April 25 for last-minute preparations for the Festival of Fun May 2 at the Texarkana Fairgrounds from 2 to 5 p.m.

During the day the girls lashed tables, hand washing facilities, cooking and firewood storage facilities by using dowels, donated by Guy Bayse of Brunner Ivory Handle Co., and binders twine.

At the Festival of Fun these items, with others made previously at scout meetings, will be on display for friends and family who wish to attend.

Admission is free. If it rains, the date will be changed to May 9.

Those present were Deborah Bennett, Linda Beck, Carla Carey, Jodi Duncan, Jolyn Herndon, Raelaine Jordan, Ginger King, Candice Misenheimer, Dobbye Petre, Donna Kaye Petre, Donna Rowe and Jan Rowe.

Leaders present were Mrs. Kenneth E. Petre, Mrs. Carlton King, Mrs. Charles "Butch" Beck.

Junior Girl Scout Troop 297 had an overnight at the Little House in Fair Park, Friday, April 24. The girls enjoyed cooking hamburgers on grills. Later in the evening the troop practiced for their First Aid Show-Fire to be given at the Festival of Fun in Texarkana May 2. They also played records and an electric organ.

Those attending were: Terri Alford, Lori Britt, Shari Bryan, Kathy Coffee, Resi Jay Devenney, Cindy Hutson, Terri Kayble, Ruth Ann Ogburn, Julie Still, Cindy Walters, Sally White, Gail Wilson, and leaders, Mrs. Charles Bryan and Mrs. E.L. White.

HELEN HELP US!

by Helen Bottel

THIS IS A PROBLEM?

Dear Helen: I smile at myself for writing this to you, but I like to read your column and maybe someone will like reading my problem.

I am 76 years old. Lost my wife a year ago. Have very nice house and garden, and want someone to share it with. No, this isn't a lonelyhearts letter. You see, I have four to choose from:

Number 1 is a little worn out. She was the girl I almost married years ago, but chose my wife instead. Loyalty makes me consider her, but to be frank, there's hardly anything left of her.

Number 2 is active and talkative and a bit on the radical side. She was divorced. She probably wore her husband out, and she might me too.

Number 3 is very nice, cute and intelligent, but overly devoted to her grandchildren. I'm afraid I might get the pumpkin from her (That means a re-tal.) Number 4 is the widow of my former best friend. She's full of pep, a little too roly polly, very active now in social work. A fine gal.

I am somewhat scared of them all. So I divide my time between the four.

Too bad man's mate can't still be fashioned from his rib. Maybe then we'd get something we know about. Which one?—SCARED

Dear Scared: When indecision is bliss, 'tis folly to be wed. Step out with all four until you're sure you'd rather be married than a dashing widower. By that time, you'll have made your own choice (and I'm betting on Number Four)—H.

Dear Helen: I just had to write this. We have walked together 30 years and are still in love. I still put occasional notes in my husband's lunch, telling him how much I care for him—and he leaves answers for me! Silly? No! We love each other.

We can look across a room full of people or just across our own living room and see the same in our eyes that brought us together. We walk hand in hand down the street if we feel like it. If we have a tiff, it's soon over and we laugh about it.

Somehow this deep affection is catching. Our children feel it for their mates, and our grandchildren are open and demonstrative.

Of course life isn't all peaches and cream, but even as I write, I am filled with a warmth, just thinking of the joys and sorrows we have shared together. At age 50, I can still say, "Hi, I love you, honey," as spontaneously as I did at 20, and so can my man! Faith and love are a great team.—GRANDMA STILL IN LOVE

Dear Grandma: They certainly are—and so are you! Thanks for writing.—H.

Dear Helen: This woman will call and tell you how and what kinds of personal lives our friends are living. Then when you try to defend them, she's hostile. So you say nothing.

Yet she has managed to convince those same friends that I am the culprit who spread tales. All I did was listen. Can people really believe I'm a gossip?—A.H.

Dear A: When you listen to a confirmed gossip, she assumes you agree with her. Then it's only a small shift to "Guess what A.H. told me today?" And soon she may even believe you started the rumor.

Tell your friends the truth, and next time remember that she who says nothing often has words put in her mouth.

LEGAL NOTICE
ORDINANCE NUMBER 866
AN ORDINANCE TO BE ENTITLED: "ORDINANCE TO REZONE CERTAIN PROPERTY IN THE CITY OF HOPE, ARKANSAS, FROM R-2 TO C-2 ON THE ZONING MAP OF SAID CITY; AND FOR OTHER PURPOSES"
WHEREAS, the owners of the property hereinafter described in the City of Hope, Arkansas, duly filed with the City Clerk for consideration by the Board of Directors of the City of Hope, Arkansas, petitions praying that said lands be re-zoned from R-2 (Residential) to C-2 (Highway Commercial); and
WHEREAS, said petitions were duly referred to the City Planning Commission which caused a hearing to be held thereon after due notice as required by law; and
WHEREAS, the City Planning Commission after due consideration and public hearings has recommended that all the property hereinafter described be re-zoned as set out herein;
NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED by the Board of Directors of the City of Hope, Arkansas:
SECTION I—That the following described property in the City of Hope, Arkansas, be re-zoned from R-2 (Residential) to C-2 (Highway Commercial), said property being described to-wit:
Tract 1: Blocks 1 and 2, and Lots 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17 and 18 in Block II, being South Half (S 1/2) of Block Eleven (11), all in Arnold's Addition to the City of Hope, Arkansas, according to the plat of said Addition now of record in the recorder's office within and for Hempstead County, Arkansas, in Miscellaneous Record Book 2, Page 415; and
All that part of the Northeast Quarter (NE 1/4) of Section Twenty-nine (29), Township Twelve (12) South, Range Twenty-four (24) West, in the City of Hope, Arkansas, more particularly described as follows: Beginning at a point on the West line of South Main Street in the City of Hope, Arkansas, where same intersects the South line of West 6th Street, said point being also North 17 1/2 degrees West 1129 feet from the intersection of the said West line of South Main Street with the South line of said Southwest Quarter (SW 1/4) of said Section 33. From THE POINT OF BEGINNING run thence Westerly along the South line of West 6th street 160 feet, run thence Southerly and parallel to South Main Street, 80 feet, run thence Easterly and parallel to 6th Street 160 feet to the West line of South Main Street run thence North along the West line of South Main Street 80 feet to THE POINT OF BEGINNING
SECTION II—The zoning map of the City of Hope, Arkansas, previously adopted is amended hereby to reflect said changes.
SECTION III—All ordinances and parts of ordinances in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.
SECTION IV—It is ascertained and determined that the property involved should be reclassified immediately for the orderly growth and development of the City of Hope, Arkansas; therefore, this ordinance being necessary for the peace, safety, and welfare of the inhabitants of said City, an emergency is declared to exist and this ordinance shall take effect and be in full force from and after its passage and approval.

Get The Light From GOD'S LIGHTHOUSE GUIDE YOU TO HIS CHURCH

the Earth IS HIS

The soil is God's priceless gift to man. It is a tangible gift neither plant, animal nor man can live without. We depend on soil for just about everything. Although a mixture of dead plants, animals, rocks and other forms of life, it constantly changes through weathering to retain its perpetual productiveness. But man has upset its natural balance with tools and fire and set in motion damaging erosion. Americans are guilty, and that's what we've got to stop. Jeremiah said, and let us say with him, . . . "the whole land is made desolate, because no man layeth it to his heart." Then grieved Jeremiah said, "They have sown wheat, but shall reap thorns." Oh, God, let us be good Stewards of His Precious Soil, for, surely This Earth Is His.

Nolan Ryan Not Dazzling NL Batters

By TOM SALADINO
Associated Press Sports Writer
Nolan Ryan dazzled National League batters during April but the flame-throwing New York Mets' right-hander closed out the month on a gradual downhill slide.

The 23-year-old speedballer set down San Francisco 4-1 Thursday, limiting the Glants to three hits while striking out eight and walking eight. Not a bad performance, however, considering Ryan's two previous starts.

— A one-hitter in a 7-0 victory over Philadelphia on April 18, striking out 15 batters and — A two hitter in which he dropped a 1-0 decision to Los Angeles, April 25, striking out five.

Thursday's performance by the Alvin, Tex., resident, evened his record in two-plus major league seasons to 14-14 and he has now struck out 259 batters in 252 innings.

The 6-foot-2, 195-pounder's credentials for this season:

An 0.69 earned run average in 26 innings, two earned runs, six hits, 28 strikeouts, 20 walks and a 2-1 record.

Atlanta creamed Chicago 9-2 and Los Angeles edged Montreal 2-1 in the only other NL games played. Houston at St. Louis was called by rain.

In American League action, Boston nipped Oakland 8-7, Chicago stopped Baltimore 6-3, Minnesota whipped Cleveland 4-1, Washington bombed Milwaukee 12-2, New York blanked California 1-0 and Kansas City got by Detroit 3-2 in 10 innings.

Ryan's third complete game of the season gave him more than he had all of last year when he finished two games in a 6-3 season. His victory also was the world champion Mets' 10th triumph in April, establishing a club record. Ryan's eight bases on balls also set a club record.

Ryan was supported by Tommie Agee's homer and a two-run single by Joe Foy. Bud Harrelson tripled and was driven home by Cleon Jones' single for the Mets other tally. The Glants lone run came on a walk, a single by Hal Lanier, a sacrifice and Bobby Bonds' groundout.

Also closing out a torrid month of April was the hot-hitting left fielder of the Braves, Rico Carty. Carty boomed two homers, including a grand slam in the first inning and Hank Aaron and Hal King chipped in with solo blasts in the Braves rout of the Cubs.

Carty's homers, his sixth and seventh of the season, also stretched his hitting streak to 20 games and upped his batting average to .423, second best in the league. He also has driven in 23 runs.

George Stone, 3-1 stopped the Cubs on six hits and struck out a career high of 10 batters.

Jim Hickman rapped a homer off the southpaw in the ninth inning, making a total of 34 round-trippers hit out of Atlanta Stadium in nine games. All five blasts Thursday night carried over 400 feet with Aaron's estimated at over 500 feet.

Chicago's Billy Williams became the first player in NL history to play in 1,000 straight games but went hitless in four trips.

Rookie right-hander Sandy Vance scattered four hits in gaining his first major league victory and got all the support he needed when the Dodgers scored twice in the opening inning.

Singles by Maury Wills and Ted Sizemore and a walk to Willie Davis loaded the bases. Andy Kosco struck out but West Parker walked to force in one run and a forceout bouncer by Willie Crawford brought in the other.

Montreal's run came in the fourth when Kosco slammed into the right field wall while chasing Bobby Wine's fly ball. Wine flew around the bases for an inside-the-park homer and Kosco had to leave the game with a bruised cheekbone and a laceration inside his ear.

Vance, a 23-year-old, recalled from the Pacific Coast League to fill Bill Singer's spot in the starting rotation, struck out three and walked three.

The idea of contact lenses was conceived by Leonardo da Vinci in 1508 but his theory wasn't tested until 1890.

Lakers Say West Will Play Tonight

By JACK STEVENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer
LOS ANGELES (AP) — Jerry West says he'll play tonight against the New York Knicks' bockers even though his doctor says he shouldn't.

The ace of the Los Angeles Lakers left nothing to doubt. His left hand was encased in bandage, but he declared: "We will beat them. We should have beaten them Wednesday night. This time we will."

West, the leading scorer of the National Basketball Association, suffered a jammed thumb on Wednesday night as his Lakers lost 111-108 to the Knicks in overtime.

It might have ended more quickly except that Jerry, with 34 points in all, slammed home a desperation 55-footer at the buzzer that ended the regulation time at 102-102.

He played hurt. His thumb was jammed in the first half. He didn't score at all in the third period, then came back for 15 points in the final quarter, just enough to hold off the Knicks who needed the overtime period to take a lead of two games to one in the NBA title set.

Willis Reed scored 38 to lead the Knicks and once again he stood out against Wilt Chamberlain. There was some worry when Reed suffered a knee bruise in a collision with the 7-foot-2 Chamberlain. However, the worry was short-lived and Reed is a cinch to be at his post for the fourth game of the best four-of-seven game series.

Without West, the Lakers would be dead. Without Reed, the Knicks wouldn't show much life either. So both are expected to be on the court.

West's long shot, which has been estimated anywhere from 50 to 60 feet, preserved the Lakers but didn't take the life out of the New Yorkers as might have been expected.

"From that game you can see there is not much difference in our two teams," commented Knicks Coach Red Holzman. "I don't think anybody could say which club was the better. This game is awfully tough on coaches."

Jerry West Leads NBA in Long Shots

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — That sensational 55-foot long shot Jerry West of the Los Angeles Lakers made as the buzzer sounded against the New York Knicks in Los Angeles Wednesday night is the longest shot on record in National Basketball Association playoff annals.

But it isn't the longest shot by any means in pro or college basketball.

West got off his desperation long heave with one second left and the Knicks ahead by 102-100. It swished through the net as the buzzer sounded and tied the regulation game at 102-102.

The Knicks went on to win 111-108 in the extra period for a 2-1 lead in the best-of-7 NBA championship playoff.

What is the longest shot on record by actual measurement and by whom?

The answer is: George Linn of Alabama, 84 feet, 11 inches.

Linn got off his historic heave in the Alabama Field House at Tuscaloosa on Jan. 4, 1955 in a

Stan Bahnsen in Shutout for Yankees

By HERSCHEL NISSENSEN
Associated Press Sports Writer
The New York Yankees have been waiting for Stan Bahnsen to become a complete pitcher. Thursday night he became the only one they have.

In the 21st game of the season, the Yankees finally got complete game No. 1, and it wasn't from pitching aces Mel Stottlemyre or Fritz Peterson but rather from the one-time Bahnsen burner, whose flame flickered out last season after he was 17-12 and Rookie of the Year in 1968.

The 25-year-old right-hander throttled the California Angels on five hits 1-0 and reversed his own personal shutout trend. He had been on the losing end of the two blanks the Yanks suffered earlier.

Elsewhere in the American League, Kansas City stopped Detroit 3-2 on Bob Oliver's 10th-inning double, Washington bombed Milwaukee 12-2, the Chicago White Sox clipped Baltimore 6-3, Minnesota whipped Cleveland 4-1 and Boston outlasted Oakland 8-7.

In the National League, it was Atlanta 9, The Chicago Cubs 2; the New York Mets 4, San Francisco 1 and Los Angeles 2, Montreal 1. Houston at St. Louis was rained out and the other teams were idle.

Roy White's long sacrifice fly in the third inning following singles by Horace Clarke and Bobby Murcer gave Bahnsen his 1-0 lead and he protected it with an assortment of fast balls, curves, sliders and change-ups.

He struck out only two Angels but picked up 17 outs on ground balls.

"He was making them hit the breaking ball," said manager Ralph Houk. "I thought the way he mixed up his pitches was the best ever for him. In so many games he looks like he's trying to throw the ball by the hitters. He'll strike out so many in the first four or five innings, then get his pitches up and get hurt."

Houk had the bullpen ready to go after Sandy Alomar opened the ninth with his third hit. But he went with Bahnsen and didn't live to regret it as Bill Voss bounced into a double play and Jim Fregosi flied out.

Kansas City nipped Detroit when Oliver slammed a two-out double in the 10th following a walk to Amos Otis. Otis and Joe Keough hit solo homers for the Royals in the sixth.

The Tigers got their first run on a weird play in the sixth. Cesar Gutierrez tripled and the Royals decided to appeal that he missed first base. But pitcher Bill Butler heaved the ball into right field and Gutierrez scampered home. They tied it in the eighth on a walk and Al Kaline's triple.

Frank Howard and Bernie Allen crashed three-run homers in the third inning as Washington blasted Milwaukee for George Brunet's first victory. Howard drove in a fourth run with a single.

The White Sox pushed across four unearned runs in the sixth and Duane Josephson hammered a two-run double in the seventh as Tommy John, with help from Wilbur Wood in the eighth, beat the Orioles for his first triumph after five losses. Frank Robinson homered for the Birds.

The Twins got home runs from Harmon Killebrew, Brant Aleya and Leo Cadebas to beat Cleveland while homers by Rico Petrocelli, George Scott and Billy Conigliaro powered the Red Sox past Oakland, Felipe Alou, Joe Rudi and Frank Fernandez connected for the A's.

college game against North Carolina. Alabama won 77-55.

There was so much speculation over the distance of the shot that Alabama officials got out a tape measure and pinpointed it at exactly 84 feet, 11 inches.

The longest heave in pro basketball is an estimated 92-foot last second desperation shot by Jerry Harkness of the Indiana Pacers against Dallas in an American Basketball Association game at Dallas on Nov. 13, 1967.

Under ABA rules it was a three-point goal and gave Indiana a 119-118 victory.

District Court to Decide on ABA Merger

NEW YORK (AP) — Players from the National Basketball Association go to court today to try to stop a merger with the American Basketball Association.

A judge in U.S. District Court was to hear arguments from the players' attorneys asking for an injunction against the merger. The leagues are currently under a restraining order prohibiting them from merger talks.

Meanwhile, a high basketball official who declined identification said Thursday night that the leagues had already agreed to merge.

This brought denials from Commissioner Walter Kennedy of the NBA and Ray Patterson, president of the Milwaukee Bucks of the NBA.

The NBA players' association contends a marriage of the leagues would eliminate all competition for talent in pro basketball. College players now have a choice of either league.

The restraining order was obtained by attorneys for the 14 player representatives of the NBA teams, who filed an anti-trust suit two weeks ago.

On Thursday night, the official told the Associated Press that a merger agreement was reached at a recent meeting between the leagues.

He said the terms called for full integration of the leagues along the lines set up by the National and American football leagues. He said the NBA and ABA would play under their own banners for three years with a common draft and exhibition games. Then, at the end of the third year, the leagues would merge under one banner.

In an allied development, the owner of the Los Angeles Stars said he will relocate his team in accordance with the merger agreement. Bill Daniels said relocation of the Stars is a condition of the merger to protect territorial rights of the NBA's Los Angeles Lakers.

Also among conditions believed to be settled was withdrawal of an anti-trust suit against the NBA and some agreement over the ABA's so-called invasion of territory of the NBA's Baltimore franchise by Washington of the junior league.

Jack Dolph, president of the ABA, was unavailable for comment Thursday night.

George Salmes A Free Agent

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP) — Veteran safety, George Salmes of the Buffalo Bills became a free agent today after he and the National Football League team were unable to reach agreement on a new contract.

The 28-year-old pro played out his option last fall and has been seeking a two-year "no-cut, no-trade" contract that also provides a salary increase.

Salmes, named the former A CAN League's all-time free safety, now may negotiate with any of the other 25 teams in the NFL.

Miss Crump Derby's First Lady Jockey

By ED SCHUYLER JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer
LOUISVILLE (AP) — A field of 18 3-year-olds, the lack of a solid favorite and Diane Crump, That's the mixture ready to boil over in Saturday's wide-open and history-making Kentucky Derby.

The catalyst is Miss Crump, who will be the first girl jockey to ride in America's most famous horse race.

Lacking an attention-getting colt, such as Majestic Prince, this 96th renewal of the Derby at Churchill Downs soared in public interest when the 21-year-old Miss Crump was named to ride W. L. Lyons Brown's Fathom.

The first colt entered Thursday for the 1¼-mile, $125,000-added classic was Sonny Werblin's Silent Screen, the 1969 juvenile champion who has won only one of four starts this year, and the last was William C. Robinson Jr.'s Admiral's Shield, winner of Tuesday's one-mile Derby Trial.

Those whose names passed the entry box in between included Samuel J. Agnew's Terzaghi, the Santa Anita Derby winner and the early 7-2 pick for Saturday, and Raymond Curtis' My Dad George, the 4-1 second pick who won the Flamingo, Florida Derby and Stepping Stone Purse consecutively.

If all 18 leave the gate at 5:40 p.m., EDT, the gross purse will be a Derby record $171,300, with a record $128,800 to the winner. Coverage on television will be from 5-6 p.m. and on radio from 5:30-6 p.m. CBS will handle both.

The forecast calls for mild weather with a chance of thundershowers. The usual crowd—traditionally estimated by Churchill Downs at 100,000—will be on hand.

Also entered were the Ethel D. Jacobs pair of Personality and High Echelon, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Gary's Corn Off The Cob, Alan Magerman's George Lewis, Robert Lehmann's Dust Commander, Mrs. J. S. Dean Jr.'s Holy Land, Charles Engelhard's Protanto and Her-Jac Stable's Naskra.

Joining Fathom as field horses—horses grouped as one betting interest—were Lin-Drake Farm's Dr. Behrman, Steve Carson's and Irving Apple's Rancho Lejos, Dr. Richard Kuh's and Walter Hickey's Robin's Bug, the Wolfson Brothers' Native Royalty and E.V. Benjamin III's and J. M. Jones Jr.'s Action Getter.

Bill Shoemaker will take Terzaghi out of the No. 14 post, with My Dad George just inside him under Ray Broussard. Bill Hartack will send George Lewis out of the No. 1 slot and Angel Cordero Jr. will leave No. 18 on Corn Off The Cob. Corn Off The Cob is the co-third favorite at 5-1, with High Echelon, No. 12, and Larry Adams, and Personality, No. 17, and Eddie Belmonte.

It was thought Belmonte might miss the Derby after a mount he rode at Aqueduct Wednesday was disqualified and he was faced with a 10-day suspension. The New York stewards ruled Thursday, however, Belmonte was blameless.

Other jockey assignments are Dust Commander, Mike Manganello; Holy Land, Hector Pilar; Rancho Lejos, Rudy Campas; Silent Screen, John L. Rotz; Robin's Bug, Leroy Moyers, the breeder of the colt; Protanto, Jorge Velasquez; Dr. Behrman, Chuck Baltazar; Action Getter, Mike Venezia; Naskra, Braulio Baeza; Admiral's Shield, Jimmy Nichols; and Native Royalty, no boy.

Denver Wins W. Playoff in Overtime

By BURL OSBORNE
DENVER, Colo. AP — The tallest man on the floor wept and the shortest man wept Thursday night when the bubble burst.

Three seconds remained in the first game of the American Basketball Association's Western Division final playoff.

The Los Angeles Stars led Denver by three points. They thought they had it won, the clock was stopped and the Rockets had the ball out-of-bounds, but after all, only three seconds remained.

And when Denver's Larry Jones swished a three-point goal from deep in the left corner as the buzzer sounded, the Stars fell. Seven-foot-tall Craig Raymond and six-footer Mack Calvin had tears in their eyes when they went back to the Los Angeles bench.

"When we went into the overtime there wasn't a doubt in my mind that we would win it," said Denver Coach Joe Belmont.

With Jones blitzing for 14 points in the overtime alone—37 for the game—the Rockets did win it, 123-113, for their 24th consecutive victory at home.

The Rockets and Stars play the second game of their best-of-seven series here tonight in the sold-out Denver Auditorium Arena.

The winner of the series will meet the Indiana-Kentucky winner for the ABA title. Indiana and the Colonels begin their Eastern Division final playoff series tonight at Indianapolis.

Belmont was asked about his strategy for Jones' tying shot at the buzzer.

"What kind of strategy can you use with three seconds to play?"

"It was either Jeff Congdon or Jones to make that three-point shot and it went to Jones, a man with age and experience," he said.

But rookie Spencer Haywood, the ABA's most valuable player, and Julian Hammond sparked a third-quarter surge that pushed the Rockets ahead to a lead that reached 10 points halfway through the final period.

Then Calvin and George Stone led the Stars back.

Dallas Golf Classic May Start Today

By DENNE H. FREEMAN
Associated Press Sports Writer
DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Host professional Gene Shields looked out the window of the Preston Trails Golf Club at the torrential rains lashing the course and said "If it ever clears off, there will be some super scores shot here."

A field of 144 was to give it another go today in the rain-delayed $100,000 Byron Nelson Golf Classic and winter rules were in force.

"They get to improve that lie," Shields said. "That means they can fire the ball at the pin with better accuracy and because the greens are damp it's going to stop quick for closer birdie putts."

Shields, who knows every blade of wet grass over the soggy, rolling layout, said he liked the chances of South African Gary Player and long-knocking Jack Nicklaus.

"Nicklaus is driving so well and Player is shooting the best golf of his life and can play under any conditions," Shields said.

The already soaked course was buffeted by heavy rains Thursday and officials called play off before anyone left the first tee. The schedule was for 18 holes to be played both Friday and Saturday with a 36-hole windup Sunday.

The final two days of play are set for national television coverage by ABC-TV.

White Rock Creek is on a rampage through the course and the Par 70 course will be playing to a Par 69 because of the high water and silt on some fairways, Shields said.

The 357-yard Par 4 over White Rock Creek was chopped to a 180-yard Par 3.

Shields said there had been some thought about changing the 468-yard par-4 No. 10 to a par 5 by moving the tees back.

The PGA decided against it because the players had practiced from the Par 4 area," Shields said.

Razorbacks Red-White Game Saturday

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — The Arkansas Razorbacks are scheduled to close out spring practice here Saturday when Bill Montgomery's White team takes on Joe Ferguson's Red Team at 1:30 p.m.

The Reds upset the Whites 23-16 at Little Rock last Saturday as Ferguson completed 18 of 32 passes.

Coach Frank Broyles says the lineups for Saturday's game will be practically the same as those for the Little Rock game.

"We didn't get to see as much as we would have liked because of the rain," Broyles said after Saturday's game. "We will not play our last game in the rain. We'll just wait for a pretty day."

Broyles said he was "seriously concerned by the slow progress" of the offensive line. The Razorbacks are attempting to replace All-American center Rodney Brand, guard Jerry Dossey and tackle Bob Stankovich.

Little Rock television station KATV will tape Saturday's game and replay it Saturday night.
